TIME: 12:30 PM - 4:30 PM
LOCATION: RAIDER SAFETY TRAINING CENTRE
8335 WINSTON STREET
BURNABY, BC V5A 2H3

COURSE DETAILS:

This program is an intermediate level respiratory protection course. It is intended for individuals who have basic knowledge and experience with qualitative fit testing and will be responsible for conducting qualitative fit testing within their workplace. Participants should be clean shaven and remove any facial piercings prior to the workshop.

Following classroom instruction which includes an overview of respiratory personal protection, associated legislation and qualitative fit testing information, participants take part in a hands-on guided practice of the fit test procedure as both the fit tester and the person being fit tested.

All participants receive a Workshop Reference booklet which includes workshop content, donning and doffing instructions, qualitative fit testing instructions and examples of fit testing documentation. A Certificate of Attendance is provided upon completion of the workshop.

Note: Requirements for elements of this training pertaining to respiratory protection, at a minimum, conform to CSA Standard Z94.4 "Selection, Use, and Care of Respirators".

CANCELLATION & RETURN POLICY: Cancellation will be accommodated at no charge if written notice is received by Raider Safety 10 working days prior to the course start date. Registrants who fail to appear for the course may be invoiced for the full registration. Cancellation fee of $350 will apply. 3M Canada reserves the right to cancel or reschedule classes. You will be advised minimum 5 working days prior to scheduled date. Return of Qualitative Fit Test Kit 50-FT30 is not permissible after registration.
